October 2011

A COMMUNITY NEWSLETTER OF EDGEWOOD BOROUGH

Community Day

Thank you to all of those who attended Community Day. The long standing Edgewood tradition was well attended from the opening ceremony provided by Boy Scout Troop 23 to day's end with music provided by the Edgewood Symphony Orchestra and a magnificent fireworks display. There was plenty of food, music, entertainment and fun had by all ages. If you are interested in assisting with or have ideas to share for this community-building event next year, please consider joining the Recreation Board. You may do so by contacting the Borough office at (412) 242-4824.

What's New, Edgewood Towne Centre?

Edgewood Towne Centre is now 100% leased! There are many new stores to browse and Giant Eagle is undergoing a $9 million dollar expansion.

Giant Eagle is expanding and remodeling after twenty years of occupancy. The store was last updated 10 years ago. Many exciting changes are expected. The expansion includes taking over six tenant spaces. New features will include a gourmet foods department with a hot bar and sub shop. In the Café, Giant Eagle plans to sell 6 packs for carryout. The remodeling and expansion will be done in phases with no interruption to the services currently provided. Projections for the end of construction are September 2012, with a grand re-opening to follow.

Due to the expansion of Giant Eagle, Super Nails has moved across the parking lot. It is now next to the new AT&T store. GNC also moved down one space. Other new stores in the Edgewood Towne Centre complex include ReStore, Habitat for Humanity's retail store in which you will find reusable and surplus home items for sale. Mirror Image Salon, a full service family salon is open seven days a week and walk-ins are welcomed. The Reel Bar and Grill offers fresh ground hamburgers and large screen TVs for your game day viewing. Locally owned Burton's Total Pet is now open with many offerings, including a well trained staff, for pets and their humans. In the void left by AJ Wright is now CW Price, a discount clothing and home goods store.

HALLOWEEN HAPPENING

Come down to Koenig Field on Saturday, October 22 and 29, from 7pm to 9pm to get into the Halloween spirit. There will be seasonal crafts, games, snacks, and everyone's favorite – the annual hayrides provided by the EVFD. Weather permitting, there will be a seasonal movie shown on the big screen at the field.

EVFD

Visit us

Please check out the new and improved EVFD website, www.station137.com. New features and photographs have been added to the site to make it more user friendly. Of course there is information on becoming a member of the department. Please check the site for information on the department and upcoming events.

Citizen Firefighters

We are currently in the planning stages of offering a Citizen's Fire Academy. Much like the Citizens Police Academy, it will give participants a chance to experience the fire department hand on. Along with classroom discussions and presentations from the Allegheny County Fire Marshalls office there will be hands on sessions. We are hoping to secure a training facility for the final exam that will allow the students to go through a fire simulation. Information for this program will be made available on the web site as well as our Facebook page Edgewood VFD Station 137.

Hay Rides

In addition, please check the website and our Facebook page for up to date information regarding the annual hay ride at Koenig field. The EVFD will be working with the Edgewood Foundation to see that this tradition continues.

Thank You!

Thank you to everyone who purchased chicken dinners at Community Day this year. Thank you to Giant Eagle Edgewood Towne Centre for their donation to the EVFD. Also, thanks to Charlie Nied of Nied's Funeral Home for his generous donation to the EVFD. The support of these local businesses is crucial to the department's success.

TIP OF THE MONTH

Halloween is upon us. Please help ensure our children are safe. All children who go door to door "Trick or Treating" should be accompanied by an adult. If this is not possible, children should be in groups. Children should have a glow stick or a flashlight and their costumes should have reflective tape to make them visible to the traveling public. Most important, make sure all candy has been checked by an adult before eating. Have a safe and happy Halloween!

Community Day

This Community Day was a great opportunity for the local residents to come together for food and fun. The Police Department sponsored a children's raffle that included: ten complimentary pizzas, an iTunes gift card, a backpack filled with school supplies, two family bowling passes from Legacy Lanes, one month of free martial arts classes at Shaolin Studios in Regent Square, sports memorabilia, a Mongoose bike, and a Portable Sony Playstation. Congratulations to the lucky winners!!! We would like to thank Legacy Lanes, Vocelli's Pizza in Swissvale, Shaolin Studios in Regent Square and Kmart for their generous donations. They made it possible for us to give away such great prizes this year.

The PA Freemasons provided fingerprinting and digital photos of our children through their CHIP Program. Many parents and caregivers took advantage of the program and there were fifty-three children that participated. This remarkable set up helps parents be prepared. We would like to thank the Mason's Dormont Lodge and all volunteers for this project.

Special thanks to the police officers that put in an extra long day and to the residents who make this community a great place to work.

Long Overdue Library Materials

The C. C. Mellor Memorial Library has contracted with a collection agency to assist in recovering non-returned library materials and unpaid fines. The library's mission is to provide quality materials that its patrons desire. Non-returned books, videos, CDs and other materials hurt the library's service to the public. Long overdue items are costly to the library and its users. Recognizing that, the Board of Trustees authorized this step to make every effort to recover materials and to protect taxpayers.

As part of the overdue process, the library makes a phone call or sends an email two and four weeks after an item is due. This is followed by a letter after six weeks. If these three notifications are ignored, Unique Management Services steps in to collect the materials and fees. Individuals who have at least one item overdue and who owe $50 or more will be contacted by the agency. A $10 service charge will be added to the account. The agency will make multiple attempts to contact the individual over the next 120 days. If the items are still not returned, the information is turned over to a credit reporting agency.

Please help us to serve all patrons by returning items promptly so that others may use them. You may renew items on the library's website, by calling the library or in person. Thank you for helping ensure that everyone has access to the materials in the library's collection.

Community Organizations

Scouts

The scouts of Troop 23 and their families celebrated the end of their summer season with a picnic at Trafford BY Park where a Court of Honor was held. Numerous merit badges were awarded and the scouts enjoyed a day of fishing and family fellowship. In addition, the scouts supervised activities at the Edgewood Community Day. The scouts set up a leather craft table and helped local children create stamped and dyed leather items such as bookmarkers, bracelets and key chains. A climbing wall allowed everyone to test their strength and coordination.

The scouts would like to thank everyone who supported the troop by visiting our flea market in September. The proceeds of the flea market will be used to fund troop activities, including plans for the troop to celebrate our 100th anniversary.

This past month, the scouts attended the Laurel Highlands Council's MountainFest Camporee, where they participated in many outdoor activities including fishing, climbing, archery and rifle range. Every month the troop plans an outdoor activity. Boys who are interested in joining the troop can attend our meetings every Monday night at 7pm at the First Presbyterian Church of Edgewood.

Edgewood Home Delivered Meals

We are in need of drivers and runners for our Home Delivered Meals service. Edgewood Home Delivered Meals is a service that is supported by the First Presbyterian Church of Edgewood and run by the Eastern Area Adult Services. Any Edgewood or Swissvale resident who is unable to shop for or prepare meals during a period of recuperation or for a longer term is eligible to receive this service. Volunteers pick up the meals at the Swissvale Senior Center Monday through Friday and deliver them to shut-ins. If you or a member of your family needs this kind of help, call 731-6125 and register with the director, Jodi Trovato, or call Joy Goethert at 731-1640 if you can spare two hours once or twice a month.

Join the ESO in the fall for a program reaching "Across the Seas," featuring music from composers from Great Britain and the United States. This season provides a taste from both sides of the Atlantic Ocean!

On October 15, listeners will "Travel Through Space" with the ESO in a concert featuring The Planets by Gustav Holst. This huge work features an extra-large and extra powerful ESO that includes 6 horns, 4 trumpets, 3 trombones, 4 flutes, 2 piccolos, 3 oboes, a contrabassoon and more, not to mention all your favorite cellos, violins and violas! The concert begins at 7:30pm and will be performed at the Katz Auditorium at the JCC Pittsburgh in Squirrel Hill.

Also be sure to save the date for the ESO's annual Holiday Concert on Saturday December 3. This holiday tradition will be filled with "Carols from Around the Globe" and other traditional holiday favorites. Looking to 2012, March 10 brings us "Victorian Tales," including Elgar's moving Cello Concerto, and May 12 features "American Originals" from some favorite American composers including Ellington, Anderson and Gershwin. All concerts are at 7:30pm.

Edgewood Student Receives Honor

Andy Pearlman, a graduate of Winchester Thurston who is now attending Kenyon College, received the honor from the College Board of AP Scholar with distinction. This honor is bestowed upon students who receive an average score of at least 3.5 on all AP Exams taken, and scores of three or higher on five or more of these exams. Andy's parents, Mimi Passarello and Rich Pearlman of Maple Avenue, could not be more proud.

- What you might not know about Burton's TOTAL PET!
1. Locally owned and operated for 18 years
  2. We are not a chain or big box store. We don't want to just sell "stuff." Our 8 stores are owned by Burton who lives here in Pittsburgh and has been a lifelong student of animal husbandry.
  3. Our managers average over 15 years of service to Pittsburgh as a member of the Total Pet community.
  4. We carry the largest selection of pet food manufacturers. Guaranteed.
  5. In our stores the welfare of your pets comes first.
  6. We try not to cater sales around a select few manufacturers to show that we do not take perks to push particular products. If we recommend a product, we believe in it. Many brands put more money in marketing than the food itself.
