SPOTLIGHT ON EDGEWOOD BUSINESS

Square Café

Square Café has been a destination restaurant in Regent Square since 2003. In those 14 years, Square Café's fun and hip atmosphere, fabulous service and amazing brunch dishes have made an indelible mark on the landscape not only in Edgewood, but in the city of Pittsburgh. Sherree Goldstein describes her restaurant as a "fun, neighborhood-oriented place—people think of us as their second kitchen," as many customers will treat their out-of-town guests and travelers at her unique restaurant. Square Café was awarded a 2017 Certificate of Excellence by Trip Advisor, so those guests have certainly been impressed!

Square Café

Sherree Goldstein - Owner

The menu, which has delicious options for meat-eaters, vegetarians, vegans and gluten-free folks, changes twice yearly for seasonality. The focus is on fresh and delightful breakfast, brunch and lunch items, and each one is a palate-pleaser.

The food speaks for itself, but Sherree reserves the highest praise for her staff. "The greatest thing is really the staff. They are really dedicated and have a lot of love...and we have a lot of fun!" The café can certainly be a bustling place, but Sherree says the staff has a great time and "even when it's busy, we know exactly what's going on."

Sherree's work with Square Café's growth is always moving forward. The outdoor seating has expanded and the bar area increased seating as well, while still accommodating a customers coming in for a takeout coffee. The café also now offers online ordering and customers can request delivery service through Uber Eats as well. Square Café also caters events both large and small—something Sherree enjoys very much. "We do a ton of catering," she says.

Square Café also does a ton for the Pittsburgh Community. The café has lent a hand to POWER (the Pennsylvania Organization for Women in Recovery), the Pittsburgh Midwife Center, Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, the Jewish Community Center, Pittsburgh Action Against Rape and more. Sherree is dedicated to give back to the community through the work of her business.

Sherree was a resident of Wilkinsburg for 20 years and has recently downsized to a new place in East Liberty. She says she won't leave the East End of Pittsburgh as she loves mix the of the old and the new, and she values the incredible diversity of cultures in the neighborhoods. When asked about the accolades and recommendations Square Café gets for being a Pittsburgh destination restaurant, Sherree just says that it's nice to be recognized for quality and good service. It's clear that Square Café's team works hard not for compliments, but to bring love to the neighborhood and the community of Pittsburgh. In Square Café, Sherree created more than a restaurant, but a neighborhood landmark of traditional welcoming and warmth in fun, cool style. It will be wonderful to watch what her team does in the years to come!

Edgewood Police Department Citizen's Police Academy 2017 Report

Congratulations! The 2017 Citizens Police Academy is officially in the books. Fifteen adults attended the nine week session held every Wednesday evening for three hours at the Western Pennsylvania School for the Deaf, inside the Children's Learning Center. The recent class concluded May 31, 2017 after taking on instruction by professionals in the criminal justice system, both practical and hands-on experience.

Students were transported to Point Park University where Dr. Stimalan provided hands-on forensic, lecture, and crime scene investigations. Students were able to measure blood and piece clues together to solve the various crimes set up inside the Crime Scene House. Chief Doug Cole of the Monroeville Police Department put students through the F.A.T.S. machines providing real life shooting scenarios, enabling them to make split second decisions. The county 911 updated students on the emergency system and the United States Postal Inspector provided details about the function and role of his agency. Students were enlightened by Allegheny County Academy coordinator Bob Metz as he detailed a day inside the Police Academy. Juvenile Court lead prosecutor Meghan Black and Tom Kelly (DA's office) discussed the adult intake and role of the office; Wendy Graham added her experience with the Shuman Center and the probation process.

Deputy Jason Tarap of the Allegheny County Sheriff's Office and Trooper First Class Robyn Mungo provided knowledge of their agencies along with lots of humor. Something new this year was a presentation by Deputy Warden Williams from the Allegheny County Jail. He explained the programs and daily operations within the Department of Corrections. The class changed pace when Chief Payne went back to his days in Homicide, complete with lectures and some jaw dropping slides. Special thanks to Judge Kimberly B. Clark, Administrative Judge of Allegheny County, Juvenile Division, for taking time out of her busy schedule to educate the class and pass out important information. The group was awarded another great presentation by Judge Kim M. Hoots, District Justice DC-10. She engaged the class with knowledge, professionalism and extreme humility. Agent Kelly Kochamba of the F.B.I. instructed the students about the bureau along with passing out safety information. Bofta Yiman of WTAE spoke of the importance of police and media relations in the field, and lastly, what class would be complete without a K-9 demonstration. Thank you chief Gheppert for allowing your K-9 team lead by Officer Zakia to share their expertise.

I would like to thank everyone who participated in making this on of the best Citizen's Police Academy Classes that I have ever been a part of. Without you, it would not have been possible.

Officer Frederick Livingston
Program Coordinator

August 19 Dinner to Honor Zanic and 1967 Vikings

Edgewood sports icon George Zanic will be honored at a dinner Saturday August 19 at 7:00 pm at the Grand View Golf Club in North Braddock. The undefeated 1967 Edgewood Vikings football team, coached by George, will also be celebrated that night.

George Zanic attended the old Edgewood High School, where he starred in football, basketball, and baseball. After graduating from EHS in 1956, George graduated from the University of Pittsburgh in 1960. George earned All-America honors at Pitt as a soccer goalie and also played varsity baseball. He served in the Navy and then taught and coached for two years at Southside Beaver High School in Hookstown, PA before returning to Edgewood.

George joined the Edgewood High faculty in the fall of 1967 as a teacher and as the head football and basketball coach. Fifty years ago the very first EHS team he coached was the undefeated football squad that will be honored on August 19.

George stayed at Edgewood and later Woodland Hills for the remainder of his career. He eventually coached almost 100 teams in nine separate boys and girls sports in 32 years. He lived in Edgewood for over 40 years before moving to Florida several years ago. He and Mary raised their sons George and Van in Edgewood and are now proud grandparents. George and Mary are excited to return for this dinner and they are looking forward to seeing folks.

So please join us at Grand View on August 19 to celebrate George and his 1967 Edgewood Vikings! The price of $35 per person includes a buffet dinner and a contribution to a gift for the Zanics. There will be a cash bar and dress is casual. Please send checks to Dallas Frey at 193 West Hutchinson Avenue, Edgewood PA, 15218. Make checks payable to Dallas Frey.

If you have questions or would like more information please contact Dallas at 412-371-0278 or freydk@gmail.com.

Thank you, Coach Kip!

Coach Kip Bryant has been coaching Edgewood's Girls Softball team for 20 amazing years! On July 17 he was honored with a Mentorship award presented by Edgewood Borough's Council. In addition, July 29, 2017 was proclaimed "Coach Kip Day"! We hope to celebrate many more years with this beloved Coach.

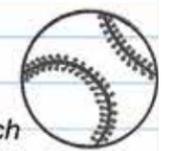

Dani Strauss literally grew up with Coach Kip!

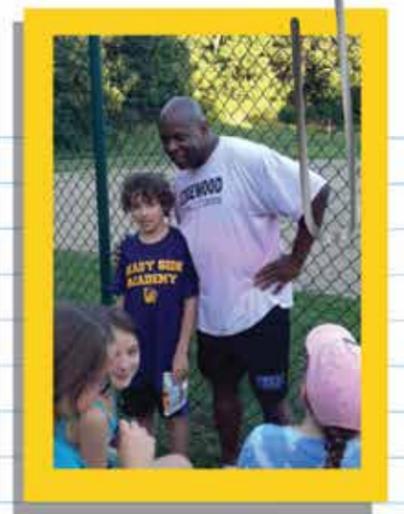

Thanks for your great coaching, Kip!
All our love,
The Mercurio Family
(Matt, Emily, Alta and Lorenzo)

Coach Kip is an amazing softball coach. He works with everyone equally and helps you no matter what level you are. I have been playing softball with him for 5 years and this will be my sixth. It has been a really fun opportunity and I even got to celebrate our birthdays together. He has taught me so much through the years and inspired me to even start playing at school. When I first started I could barely hit the ball now I can hit it so far I got my first home run last year. Because of Couch Kip I am really passionate about softball. Without Coach Kip there would be no softball I would never have learned or even started it. So thank you Coach Kip for being there for me throughout the years and teaching me so much.

Love you,
Dani Strauss

Coach Kip,
Thank you for your tireless dedication to the youth of our community. You've taught more than the girls of Edgewood softball, but their friends, siblings, and parents as well. You welcomed us all with open arms until we became one big family. We've enjoyed the post-game philosophy sessions as much as the pre-game pep talks. You are an asset to our community and we are grateful for your coaching and friendship. Endless thanks!
Love,
The Wardrip Family

Coach Kip,
Thank you so much for always including me in the softball games. You're a great coach.
Thanks
Noah

Dear Coach Kip,
In addition to making softball fun for all, your inspirational talks are so meaningful to these girls. Thanks for the impact you make in their lives.
Love,
Coach Lydia

Local Book Launch Party

Saturday, October 7, 2-4 p.m. Discovering Gettysburg: An Unconventional Introduction to the Greatest Little Town in America and the Monumental Battle that made it Famous. By Stephen Coleman.

For three days in July 1863, almost 170,000 men fought the largest battle ever to take place on American soil in a momentous, awful, and inspiring struggle to preserve our nation. Today, Gettysburg is a welcoming community of just under 8,000 that hosts well over a million people each year who are drawn to the beautiful Gettysburg National Military Park. From more than forty visits, dozens of interviews with experts and community leaders, and meticulous research of the battle, author Stephen Coleman provides an immensely readable book that is at once history, travelogue and personal memoir.

Please join us, and local author Stephen Coleman, for the local launch of his new book. No registration necessary.
