Watershed Forest Master Plan

Nine Mile Run's new Watershed Forest Master Plan, published this December, includes a series of recommendations which will put us back on the path toward reversing the trend of watershed canopy loss and eventually increasing the watershed canopy. Between 2010 and 2015 the watershed experienced 97 acres of lost tree canopy, the equivalent of one city lot every other day. Through a targeted community effort—working with residents, businesses, and local government—we hope to facilitate a reinvestment in our region's trees. The plan is a guide to a future where existing trees are better maintained and cared for, and new trees are planted and supported such that they can replace the existing canopy as it begins to age and decay.

We're excited about the direction this new plan will take us; it was crafted by and for residents and stakeholders of the watershed, and with your help we can reverse the trend of tree canopy loss in the watershed. If you're interested in helping us reach our ambitious goal, please let us know by contacting Urban Forestry Coordinator Jan Raether (jan@ninemilerun.org; 412-371-8779)

SPOTLIGHT ON EDGEWOOD BUSINESS

Winthrop Partners

Brian Werner, CPA, CFP

Brian Werner is one of less than a dozen Financial Planners in the Pittsburgh area that can boast both a Charter Financial Analyst as well as a Certified Financial Planner certification, but he was most excited to talk about his unique office—The Edgewood Train Station. Winthrop Partners, a fee-only Investment Management and Wealth Planning company has four offices in the Northeast—in Doylestown, Buffalo, Philadelphia and Pittsburgh—all in unique or historic buildings. Werner's office in Philadelphia is housed in an old Brewery. The Edgewood Train Station has been home to Winthrop Partner's Pittsburgh office since January of 2018.

Brian Werner grew up in Point Breeze, and was then a Pittsburgh expat for nearly two decades. He came back to Edgewood to raise his family. Brian worked for years with the big banks, including First Niagara, but felt he wanted to deliver more personal service to his clients. So four years ago, Brian and his collaborators began Winthrop Partners. Brian's initial office was downtown, because that was "sort of expected", he says. The train station had always been interesting, and when it became available in 2017 he debated about the move, hesitant to leave the downtown environment. But having been located in the Edgewood Train Station has been "a successful move", he says. He gets a very positive response from his clients.

Of course, having an office outside of the traffic and parking hassles of downtown is one thing, but the historic building of the Edgewood Train Station adds a level of comfort and style to Brian's business. "It's a more convenient, interesting space," he says. He's been proud to host impromptu "Happy Hours" on weekends in the space—giving a chance for clients to mingle and network. He's assisted with a number of events that mix business and pleasure—the Edgewood Foundation's well-attended Art Night, and a recent Bourbon event were both very successful. Even holding everyday meetings on the Train Station patio on fair weather days has been a boon.

Now that his office is located in Edgewood, Brian's dedication to the area has come full circle. He's involved with nearly every Edgewood organization from Edgewood Foundation events, Edgewood Club, coaching for Edgewood Youth Sports, hosting for the Progressive Dinner, and is in talks with the Edgewood Historical Society for an event. "It's a lot of fun", he says "there's no travel—it's so unique and open", he says of Edgewood. Even the 9 Mile Run Watershed Association has ties with Winthrop Partners, as it cares for the rain garden outside of the Train Station offices.

For Edgewood's future, Brian hopes that more young families choose to stay in the area. "We have such a great community," he says "I hope that we can build the momentum of the people who started these organizations and continue to grow."

The Winthrop Partners office at the Edgewood Train Station certainly has a relaxing and fascinating atmosphere, but it's clear that Brian is in the business of nurturing growth and furthering the possibilities for his community. Both his work and his social events show that he sincerely enjoys helping people grow and prosper. If you attend one of the many fun events in Edgewood, you're sure to run into Brian Werner!

Edgewood Police
Police Report

The Edgewood Police Department would like to pass along important information from an article published by the Mayo Clinic Staff about Post Traumatic Stress Disorder.

Post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD) is a mental health condition that's triggered by a terrifying event—either experiencing it or witnessing it. Symptoms may include flashbacks, nightmares and severe anxiety, as well as uncontrollable thoughts about the event.

Most people who go through traumatic events may have temporary difficulty adjusting and coping, but with time and good self-care, they usually get better. If the symptoms get worse, last for months or even years, and interfere with your day-to-day functioning, you may have PTSD.

Getting effective treatment after PTSD symptoms develop can be critical to reduce symptoms and improve function.

Post-traumatic stress disorder symptoms may start within one month of a traumatic event, but sometimes symptoms may not appear until years after the event. These symptoms cause significant problems in social or work situations and in relationships. They can also interfere with your ability to go about your normal daily tasks.

PTSD symptoms are generally grouped into four types: intrusive memories, avoidance, negative changes in thinking and mood, and changes in physical and emotional reactions. Symptoms can vary over time or vary from person to person.

Intrusive memories

Symptoms of intrusive memories may include:

- Recurrent, unwanted distressing memories of the traumatic event
- Reliving the traumatic event as if it were happening again (flashbacks)
- Upsetting dreams or nightmares about the traumatic event
- Severe emotional distress or physical reactions to something that reminds you of the traumatic event

Avoidance

Symptoms of avoidance may include:

- Trying to avoid thinking or talking about the traumatic event
- Avoiding places, activities or people that remind you of the traumatic event

Negative changes in thinking and mood

Symptoms of negative changes in thinking and mood may include:

- Negative thoughts about yourself, other people or the world
- Hopelessness about the future
- Memory problems, including not remembering important aspects of the traumatic event
- Difficulty maintaining close relationships
- Feeling detached from family and friends
- Lack of interest in activities you once enjoyed
- Difficulty experiencing positive emotions
- Feeling emotionally numb

Changes in physical and emotional reactions

Symptoms of changes in physical and emotional reactions (also called arousal symptoms) may include:

- Being easily startled or frightened
- Always being on guard for danger
- Self-destructive behavior, such as drinking too much or driving too fast
- Trouble sleeping
- Trouble concentrating
- Irritability, angry outbursts or aggressive behavior
- Overwhelming guilt or shame

For children 6 years old and younger, signs and symptoms may also include:

- Re-enacting the traumatic event or aspects of the traumatic event through play
- Frightening dreams that may or may not include aspects of the traumatic event

Intensity of symptoms

PTSD symptoms can vary in intensity over time. You may have more PTSD symptoms when you're stressed in general, or when you come across reminders of what you went through. For example, you may hear a car backfire and relive combat experiences. Or you may see a report on the news about a sexual assault and feel overcome by memories of your own assault.

When to see a doctor

If you have disturbing thoughts and feelings about a traumatic event for more than a month, if they're severe, or if you feel you're having trouble getting your life back under control, talk to your doctor or a mental health professional. Getting treatment as soon as possible can help prevent PTSD symptoms from getting worse.

If you have suicidal thoughts

If you or someone you know has suicidal thoughts, get help right away through one or more of these resources:

- Reach out to a close friend or loved one.
- Contact a minister, a spiritual leader or someone in your faith community.
- Call a suicide hotline number—in the United States, call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline at 1-800-273-TALK (1-800-273-8255) to reach a trained counselor. Use that same number and press 1 to reach the Veterans Crisis Line.

Make an appointment with your doctor or a mental health professional.

When to get emergency help

If you think you may hurt yourself or attempt suicide, call 911 or your local emergency number immediately.

If you know someone who's in danger of attempting suicide or has made a suicide attempt, make sure someone stays with that person to keep him or her safe. Call 911 or your local emergency number immediately. Or, if you can do so safely, take the person to the nearest hospital emergency room

Longtime Edgewood Resident

2018 Limpert Award Winner: Amy Andrews

The Edgewood Foundation is honored to announce that Amy Andrews has been given the William D. Limpert Award for Community Service at our Wine & Chocolate event held at the Edgewood Clubhouse on October 27, 2018. The award originated in 1991, and is named for the founder of the Edgewood Foundation. It's given to an Edgewood resident whose contributions have served in making our community a desirable place to live, and whose dedication has improved the lives of those who live here.

Amy joined the Edgewood Foundation board in 2004 and was elected President in 2006. She served as Board President until 2014, when she moved to the role of Vice President, serving an additional two years before retiring from the board in 2016.

Her most enduring work while serving on the Board went into establishing partnerships between the Edgewood Foundation, Borough council, government and other community organizations. It was through her desire to coordinate the goals of the Edgewood Foundation with local government and other local organizations that she served to foster the quality of events that we participate in as Edgewood residents each and every year. She was (and is) an active supporter, proponent and participant in nearly every community activity, always seeking a way to foster greater involvement, greater participation and communication between residents and local organizations.

As a result of her commitment to these partnerships, while acting as Board President, she was instrumental in spearheading the effort to secure grant funds for new playground equipment at Koenig Field. She worked with the Board in raising additional funds and partnered with the Borough in the planning and construction of the newest children's play area.

By working with the Borough council and management she helped to ensure that our Edgewood Community Day continued as a quality event bringing together neighbors and families. The Edgewood Fire Department continues their involvement with Edgewood community events in part because of the work she did while serving on the Edgewood Board.

Given all those efforts, she may yet be most well known for her work as chief coordinator of the annual Edgewood Progressive Dinner. Her involvement grew this annual event into a real Edgewood tradition and ensured that Edgewood remains a community of friends as well as neighbors.

We also appreciate her volunteer efforts (and gardening skills) through the time she's taken to beautify the public spaces in the borough. Her work is a continual effort, as Amy can (and will) be seen planting bulbs around the Edgewood sign, pulling weeds, and gathering volunteers to help keep Edgewood looking beautiful.

In addition to her volunteer work with the Edgewood Foundation Dr. Amy Andrews has served the Edgewood Community through her practice at Edgewood Family Chiropractic. By basing her practice within the Edgewood Community she's chosen not only to give with her time and with her heart, but with her hands, and her expertise as a doctor of chiropractic to neighbors, friends and area residents alike. This is yet another way that we see how the health of the Edgewood community is truly her focus and her passion.

Kick off the Holidays with the ESO

Join your friends and neighbors to ring in the holidays with the Edgewood Symphony Orchestra! The ESO's annual holiday concert is a favorite tradition for the neighborhood!

This festive night of music brings you classical and holiday favorites, including Carol Symphony, the Nutcracker, The Night Before Christmas, John Rutter's Gloria and the ESO's favorite Sleigh Ride. Continuing a long term partnership, the Renaissance City Choirs will join the fun and the performance will also feature Judith Dorian as well as WQED's Anna Singer.

This concert warms the heart and gives everyone a chance to come together in music. Please mark your calendar for Saturday December, 1 at 7:30 p.m. and join us at the First Presbyterian Church of Edgewood. Tickets can be purchased in advance or at the door—but come early to get a good seat! It will be a full house!

Visit www.edgewoodsymphony.org for more information on this concert as well as others coming up in 2019.

Boy Scout Troop 23

The Troop 23 Christmas tree sale begins the Saturday after Thanksgiving and runs until Saturday, December 22, at Koenig Field in Edgewood. Regular hours will be 6 to 9 p.m. Fridays, 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. Saturdays, and 1 to 5 p.m. Sundays. Come out and pick yourself a great tree while supporting a great cause.

The scouts use the money raised from the Christmas tree sale to fund their activities. For example, this summer Troop 23 spent a week at Heritage Scout Reservation in Farmington, Pennsylvania. The scouts enjoyed hiking, kayaking, sailing, and other outdoor activities, as well as earning merit badges in areas such as environmental science, emergency preparedness, woodcarving, and archery. Summer camp provides the opportunity for the boys to experience fun in the great outdoors while learning valuable life skills.

Boys who are interested in joining the Troop can attend our meetings every Monday night at 7 p.m. at the First Presbyterian Church of Edgewood (120 East Swissvale Avenue).

Weekly Celebration—All Invited

Beginning at 11 a.m. on Sunday, September 10

The members, choir, and leadership of the First Presbyterian Church of Edgewood invite you to join us for our weekly service of thanksgiving, discovery and celebration. People of all faiths, or no faith, please come. People looking for friendship, acceptance, joy, and purpose, so are we—all of that is available for all of us. It is not something we have to give; it is something we discover and create together.

Come dressed up or come as you are (like most of us)—you will be welcomed warmly. Bring the Infants and children, too.

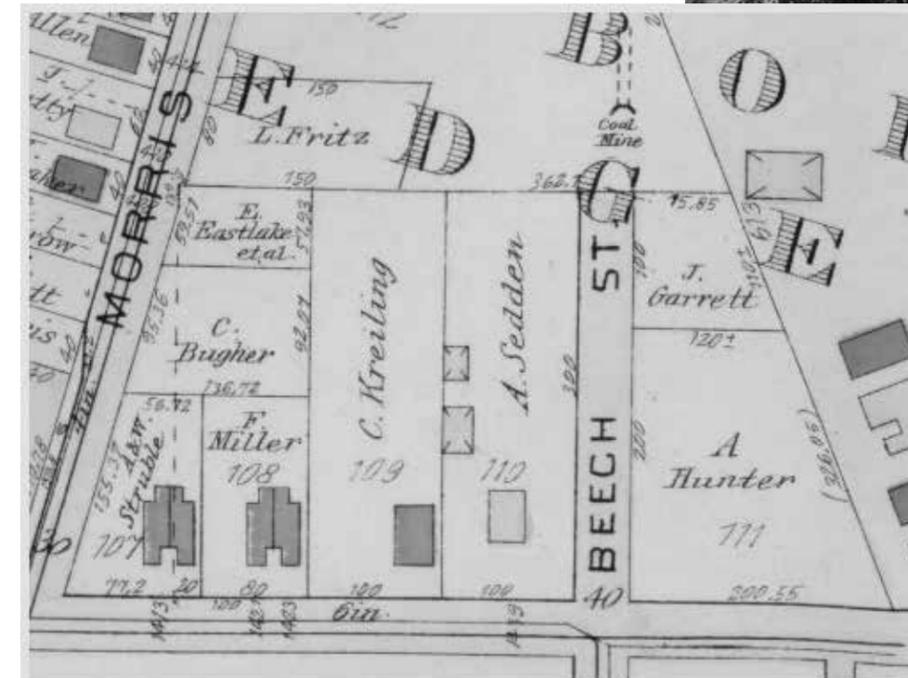

Edgewood Historical Society

Do you have information on the history of your house—or any building or place—in Edgewood? If so, the Historical Society would be most appreciative if you would share what you have. People frequently ask us about various homes and buildings in the community, and we would like to add to our library of materials.

Perhaps you have old photos (or even newer photos that one day will be old), deed records, list of previous owners, a detailed history or just bits of notes here and there. Whatever you have, we are interested.

Brian Finch shared a treasure trove of information he discovered about his house on Walnut Street, as shown in this old photo and map section. The house was built in July 1888—“... this would make my house just very slightly older than Edgewood,” Brian noted. The village was incorporated as a borough in December 1888—and was first occupied by attorney Henry Bigger and his wife, Sallie Pears Bigger—the daughter of John Pears of Bakewell, Pears & Company, a prominent glass house company on the South Side.

Please contact us at EdgewoodHistory@yahoo.com if you have something you would like to share. Even if you need us to make copies or scan any documents or photos, The Historical Society would be glad to do so.

Our families come back to participate in our leagues because we strive to focus on the fun and power of interactive play. Our leagues are popular, but also infused with love and dedication from our coaches, families and participants. Edgewood Youth Sports are a big part of what makes our neighborhood such a wonderful place to live.

Your sponsorship will make it possible for Edgewood to run these popular leagues while making it affordable for every family in our region. Team sports not only teach children the importance of responsibility and working together, but bring our whole community together. We would love to have you as a part of our team.

If you would like to Sponsor Edgewood sports, visit our website: Edgewood.pgh.pa.us/BecomeASponsor. Your donation will help Edgewood Sports continue to help our kids grow, learn and develop!

In keeping with its annual tradition the Edgewood Fire Department is pleased to make luminaria available to Borough residents. The lighting of the luminaria at curbside brings back memories of a time when nearly every home in Edgewood participated in this wonderful event. Again, this year the tradition takes on added significance as we use the event to remember friends, family and our military personnel who are not able to make it home for the holidays.

As in the past, we ask that the luminaria be lit at approximately 6 p.m. on Christmas Eve. If you purchase your kit(s) from the Fire Department you will receive 10 paper bags, 10 candles and approximately 10 pounds of sand. Please keep in mind that the luminaria should be placed 3 to 5 feet apart so you may need more than one kit. If you have questions please call 412-242-9994.

Kits are once again $10.00 each. Checks should be made payable to the Edgewood Volunteer Fire Dept. During December you may also purchase kits at the Borough Building Monday through Friday until 9 p.m. or on Saturdays from 10:00 a.m. until noon if you prefer.

All The Best of the Holiday Season!

Arts & Crafts Fair

Join us for CCM's annual curated fair featuring arts, crafts and gifts made by dozens of local artists. Find the perfect something for your loved ones in our wide selection of pottery, paintings, photographs, fiber art, home goods, jewelry and much more.

This year's fair will be held for ONE DAY ONLY on Saturday, December 8, 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., in the ballroom of the Edgewood Community House.

Raffle

Take a chance and win something special! Each local artist has donated an item for a raffle benefiting the library. Tickets are $1 for 1, $5 for 7, and $10 for 20, available at the sale or at CCM Edgewood through December 21. Winners will be drawn December 21.

Greens Sale

Deck the halls with fresh and fragrant holiday greens! CCM's annual holiday greens sale is your source for wreaths, evergreen roping, centerpieces, and more. We buy our greens straight from the distributors, so they are full and fresh, delivered the day before the Arts & Crafts Fair.

Pre-order your holiday greens and pick them up at our Arts & Crafts Fair on December 8 or have them delivered straight to your door. Pre-order forms are available on our website. Please submit all pre-orders by November 21. A limited selection of greens will be available for purchase at the Arts & Crafts Fair.

Volunteers Needed

CCM is seeking volunteers to help with our holiday greens sale. The greens sale is run in conjunction with the Arts & Crafts Fair. We are seeking several volunteers to staff the greens table the day of the sale (December 8). If you are interested in volunteering, email Erin Pierce at piercee@einetwork.net.

EDGEWOOD RESIDENT

A note from the real estate tax collector...

The 2018 Edgewood Borough real estate tax is due at penalty and will be turned over the delinquent tax collector the end of December. Please have your payments sent to me by December 5th to avoid any additional penalties. These payments should be made out to Maureen Smith, Tax Collector or Edgewood Borough.

The 2018 Woodland Hills School tax is also due at penalty unless you are paying in installments. The first installment had to be made by October 31!! The second installment is due by Jan 31, 2019. These checks should be made out to Maureen Smith, Tax Collector or Woodland Hills.

When paying your taxes, I cannot accept a check made out to Edgewood Borough for the school taxes, it is a different account which goes directly to the school district. Also make sure your written amount and your numeric amounts are the same and legible, the banks are refusing more checks because of this. If you are paying close to the due date, please put your phone number on your check so that if there is a mistake I can call you and we can fix the problem.

I have had complaints about my office hours. The job of a tax collector is a part time, elected position and the only time I am required by law to be in my office is during the last two weeks of the discount periods. I choose to be in the office for the convenience of the residents. I also work in my office during off hours to get my work done, deposits, reports, tax certifications and answering phone calls. I try to make all changes in ownership, address changes and assessments changes as I get them but sometimes these slip through the cracks. If you do not receive a tax bill in April for the borough or in July for Woodland Hills call my office, don't wait! Residents have two months to pay them at discount, I do not send out another bill until they are due at penalty because, by tax collectors law, I'm not allowed to. I do not purposely wait for the penalty period to send you another bill, I do not get additional compensation if your bill is paid at penalty. I will help you with a problem any time I can, just ask, but I cannot waive penalties or accept a payment past the due date, I don't have the authority to do that. So if you have a true problem, feel free to call my office at 412-731-0200 and I will return your call when I get in.

I would like to thank the residents for your kindness and understanding this past year. Merry Christmas, Happy Holidays and also Happy New Year!

Thank you,

Maureen Smith, Tax Collector
